Absolute Consulting Solutions LLC Has Opened for Business Bringing Breakthrough Services That Improve Profitability and Reduces Waist, Lost Schedule and Costly Mistakes

Absolute Consulting Solutions (ACS), a project management company with leadership that has over Twenty years of experience, has opened for business servicing the government and private sectors offering services that will improve efficiency and increase profitability.

Arlington VA, June 2008 – Absolute Consulting Solutions LLC has opened for business bringing breakthrough services that improve profitability and reduces waist, lost schedule and costly mistakes. The Absolute Consulting Solutions' Team understands that businesses cannot afford to make mistakes or loose customers. To help businesses achieve their maximum profits, Absolute Consulting Solutions LLC holistically assesses operations, systems and services for opportunities to improve.

Jim Fogarty, President and CEO of Absolute Consulting Solutions, LLC says, "Companies can very often improve their profits without investing a lot of money for software or hardware upgrades. Technology upgrades alone do not correct the problem and can be needlessly expensive. We focus our clients on mission expectations, cost and schedule performance, service quality, and reducing risk. This focus results in increased profits and results driven satisfaction. By targeting critical activities our clients can make improvements that increase profits."

The leadership of Absolute Consulting Solutions LLC has over 20 years of experience in implementing strong, comprehensive business programs on an ongoing basis. We use both traditional and innovative ways to save time and resources in delivering products and services that meet our customer's needs.
